

MARIANO MARCOS STATE UNIVERSITY

Diversity and Equality Committee/Office

MMSU recognizes the importance of respecting diversity and equality in the workplace and in the campus, thus, it established the Gender and Development Focal Point System (GFPS) to integrate and advocate gender equality, cultural sensitivity principles, perspectives and development processes in all levels of management and operations. The University also designated a Chief for Gender and Development under the Planning Directorate of the Office of the Vice President for Planning and Strategic Foresight. The Chief will spearhead in the mainstreaming of a gender and culturally sensitive institution through development advocacy framework and institutional agenda with a vision, mission and goals.
